TUNE-OUT AS MEMBERS OF CONGRESS WALK-OUT OF THE STATE OF THE UNION!

TIME: January 30, 2018 ~ 9:05pm

LOCATION: US Capitol Building, or on your TV/Computer/Phone

On January 30th at approximately 9:05pm all members of the Resistance—wherever they may be—are invited to participate in collective action. This action aims to provide a collectively empowering alternative to watching this president perform the State of the Union. We wish to shift national attention to focus on the most marginalized and impacted communities in hopes it may start a fresh dialogue about accountability of the media and their coverage of dangerous and narcissistic politicians in power.

We are inviting you to TUNE OUT as Members of Congress WALK OUT of the State of the Union. Then we invite you to TUNE INTO the State of the Resistance. We will take this platform and make space for highlighting the many local grassroots efforts and current calls for action from around the country and the world that center the most impacted—not the one doing the most harm.

Last year, 47 million viewers watched this president perform his first address to a joint session of Congress. Let’s take a big bite out of that number.

We want to get the word out that State of the Union is not the only thing happening at the US Capitol and around the country on January 30th.

Many members of Congress have already said they will not attend. Others are still deciding.

We, as local organizers here in DC and all over the country are putting out this call for collective action to prevent this president from having the uncontested platform of 40-60 million people who typically watch the State of the Union live on television. We want to provide an alternative to mainstream media and their viewers—and also members of Congress and their constituents. No one, even the president of the United States is entitled to an audience and platform if they have established a record of unaccountably using it to cause so much harm.

We wish to shift away from “hate-watching” as a default and self-defeating practice that unfortunately has become a pastime of many Americans. Instead of continuing to give our time, anger, and attention to this president, we ask the question: Can we give more love, time, and attention to the most impacted and marginalized communities who have been dismissed, disparaged, and impacted by this administration?

Let’s #TuneOutTrump as members of Congress do a #SOTUWalkOut and tune into the Resistance!

HOW YOU CAN PARTICIPATE

Everyone is invited to join this collective action on January 30th at 8pm:

Grassroots organizers representing marginalized communities: We want to center your work and struggles against this administration. This collective action aims to amplify your underrepresented and silenced voices. Please DM us and post your story and struggles below in the discussion about your work so we can start providing that platform.

us Members of Congress: If you are compelled/nauseated enough to leave the chamber during the State of the Union, you are welcome to join us outside the US Capitol. Our team members will be dropping by your offices the week prior to share details and offer resources. #SOTUwalkout Folks watching at home: You are invited to #TuneOutTrump after watching your Members of Congress walkout, and join the live streams for the various State of the Resistance Collective Actions happening both on the US Capitol Grounds and virtually on social media. Also, are your members of Congress attending the State of the Union? Have you invited them to be part of the #SOTUWalkout?

Members of the media: You are invited to shift your focus off the State of the Union after the #SOTUWalkout. We encourage you to follow Members of Congress out of the House chamber and make a conscientious decision with your coverage moving forward to focus on raising up the concerns and needs of impacted and marginalized communities here in Washington DC and around the country.

Resist DC- Protest President Trump Along the State of the Union Motorcade

Tuesday January 30, 2018

2030 – 2100 hours

Location- 45 Independence Ave SW- in front of Rayburn House Office Building

Approximate attendance: TBD- Facebook has 138 going and 1600 maybe

Event Details: Building on the momentum of the tens of thousands that showed up for the anniversary of the Women's March, the State of the Union brings the opportunity to show the President first-hand -- where he can SEE us -- how many people oppose his awful governance of the country.

His motorcade from the White House to the Capitol for the State of the Union, just prior to addressing tens of millions of Americans, is that perfect chance to line the streets!

The motorcade will come by at around 8:50 p.m. prior the 9 p.m. traditional entrance into the House chamber -- so please show up around 8:30 p.m. to get set.

Bring a flashlight with you to make yourself more visible and stand on the south side of Independence Avenue SW, directly in front of the Rayburn House Office Building -- the President sits on the right side of the limo, so that's the best side of the street.

Please SHARE this event to your timeline to spread the word.
